

Fortaleza – Bus Drivers’ Strike Causing Major Disruption, May 29, 2014

Open source reporting indicates that a protest by shuttle bus drivers and fare collectors is paralyzing traffic in Fortaleza. Protestors are demanding improved safety for transit workers, following an attack during a robbery that left a driver dead and a fare collector seriously injured. According to the president of the Ceará Transport Workers Union (Sindicato dos Trabalhadores Transporte Rodoviários no Estado do Ceará – “Sintro”), the event forced the closure of seven Fortaleza bus stations, affecting traffic throughout the central area of the city.

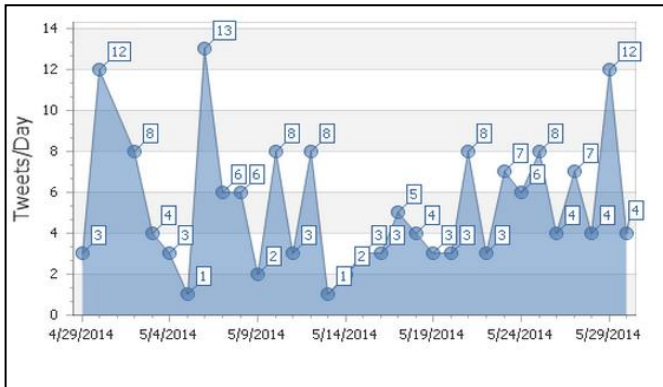

Black Bloc Planning Protests in Sao Paulo, Natal, Cuibana on June 12-15

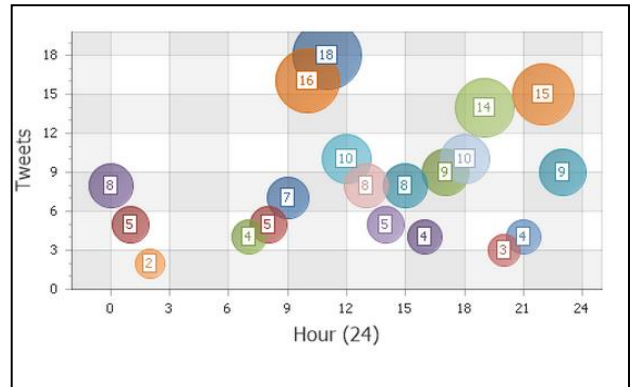

Representative Black Bloc Messaging Amplifier’s Usage Analytics

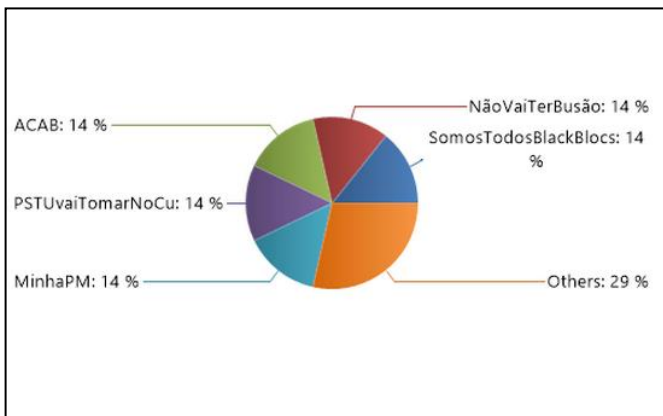

Tweets Per Day

Tweets Per Hour

Topics of Conversation

Amplification Network

